Perch with purpose. Robust, balanced seating built for the energy of informal dining and high-turnover environments.

Description

Avenue Form Café Stool provides a simple, robust seating option that complements the café table and suits high activity outdoor areas.

Avenue Form Café Stool continue the collection's refined design language in a more compact, social format. Defined by softened radii and a clean architectural profile, they bring cohesion to breakout zones, terraces, and hospitality settings. The rounded edge detail echoes the broader Avenue Form range, ensuring visual continuity across mixed seating environments.

Designed to support informal dining and high turnover use, the café table anchors conversation while the matching stool delivers a balanced, ergonomic perch. Together, they create lightweight yet structured settings that activate edges, encourage pause, and add rhythm to outdoor spaces.

Designed and manufactured in Australia, the café range is built for the demands of active public environments. Durable aluminium construction and a considered palette of powder coat finishes ensure long term performance, resilience, and seamless integration within the wider Avenue Form collection.
